Attention Investors! Opportunity Knocks!

Welcome to 8028 5 Street SW. Located just off of Elbow Drive and near McLeod Trail, it doesn't get any more convenient than this!

There are schools, shopping centers, transit and essentially anything a person could need mere moments away. This charming bungalow featuring over 1000 sq feet of living space is situated on a large pie lot and features alley access and a double detached garage. There is plenty of room in the yard alongside the sizeable shed and greenhouse for entertaining, gardening and more. Inside the home there is a spacious living and dining area with a fireplace and plenty of natural light, a functional kitchen with granite countertops and stylish stainless steel appliances. Also on the main floor there are 3 good sized bedrooms and a full bathroom. Currently, the washer and dryer are conveniently located in one of the main floor bedrooms for no-stair access. These can easily be relocated into the original location in the basement if preferred. The basement includes a large entertaining space, storage, a cold room and a non-egress room with a closet and door, which could be utilized as an office or workout room. Some other features and upgrades include a separate entrance, newer windows and window coverings, newer washer/dryer, newer shingles. This versatile property will appeal to investors, developers and families alike. The possibilities here are endless! Book your
